Besides being Irish-Scotch-French-Dutch, Candidate Roosevelt is half-Georgian. His mother was a Georgian.

A burglar has just been arrested in New York, who has been playing off as a drummer for ten years. He is wanted up in Connecticut.

Poss Platt has consented to Roosevelt's taking the stump. He had previously given his consent to his taking the Governorship, if his reach was long enou. h.

Judge Wm. Woods, of the U. S. Circuit Court, speaking "as a Republican," says he is in favor of expansion—until after the election. Then he is 'gainst it. The Judge is an exceedingly candid fraud.

Society women in Chicago are going to organize a shooting club. With that Mrs. George incident in Canton, this shooting club business should be discouraged. Too many women know how to handle shooting things now.

Senator Quay's friends say that Wanamaker offered Quay $25,000 to secure his election to the Senate, but Matt refused. Perhaps Matt didn't think $25,000 enough for landing such a chunk in the Senate, and that's what the matter was.

Governor-elect Candler, of Georgia, doesn't propose to have any fuss or feathers or red paint over his inauguration. He intends to go in, take the prescribed oath of office and inaugurate himself by going to work and attending to business.

All the mean white men in this country are not in the mongrel party of North Carolina. One in New Jersey the other day picked the pocket of a widow while she knelt by the grave in which the corpse of her husband had just been laid.

Webster Davis, who holds the position of Assistant Secretary of the Interior, in a speech at Omaha recently lauded Mr. McKinley (who gave him his job) in very complimentary terms, and referred to his "calm and Godlike face." This goes the Napoleonic countenance several times better.

Office Hunter Dockery appeals to the negroes and innocent white people to vote for him to save the fusion election law. But O. H. D. isn't running for the Legislature, and how will a vote for him help to preserve that law? As a Congressman, if elected, he will have no say on that. He is trying to bunco somebody.

It is reported that the President is trying to have the proceedings against Mrs. George quashed to avoid giving more publicity to the family scandal. He would doubtless like to have this done, although it doesn't appear how he can come between the law and the woman who publicly shot down a man on a thoroughfare of the town and made no concealment of the act or the intent to kill.

Col. Kohlsaat, the owner of the Chicago Times-Herald isn't making much of a hit with his paper, but his bake shops maintain their reputation. He is succeeding better in catering to the stomachs of the Chicago people than to their heads.

Some Philadelphia denizens live such unruffled, placid lives that spiders build nests in their ears. One of them became somewhat annoyed by that the other day and went to a doctor and had a colony, which were making too much racket, ejected.

English papers say there is a striking resemblance between Tod Sloan, the jockey, and Alfred Austin, poet laureate. But Alfred can't sit Pegasus half as cleverly as Tod can those racers he sends scooting in ahead of the other fellows.

The Governor General of the Dutch East Indies does not propose to be interviewed by newspaper men, and gives notice that he will treat any vessel coming into his ports with newspaper correspondents as a privateer.

A Western man who returned from the Klondike described it as a "vast measureless hell of ice and snow." This is somewhat different from the regulation hell, where ice and snow wouldn't stand much showing.

Richard Harding Davis wrote that Gen. Shafter was conceited, and Gen. Shafter says he will slap the face of Davis. Thus forewarned Harding will not go out of his way to meet a 300-pound slap.

Chaplain McIntyre has been bounced from the navy, which comes from an injudicious mixture of quinine and brandy. Henceforth he may take each straight.

There are 300 tugs employed in New York harbor. Their earnings average about $30 a day, or an aggregate of about $3,700,000 a year.

Lectures on the Holy Land.

Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D. will deliver the second of his series of lectures on the Holy Land at First the Presbyterian church to-night.

The lecture to-night will be a graphic account of Dr. Hoge's visit to Jerusalem.

The first of the series, on "Bethlehem," was delivered last Sunday evening and was unusually instructive and interesting.

The public is cordially invited to these lectures.

Assistant Marshals.

Mr. Geo. A. Burns, chief marshal for the grand rally in Fayetteville, October 21st, has appointed the following assistants from Wilmington: Messrs. Owen F. Love, James Kyle, M. W. Divine, Benj. Bell, Jas. W. Monroe, H. P. Munson, M. W. Jacobi, F. H. Stedman, C. C. Covington, F. L. Huggins and Hugh Wallace.

THE COMING WEEK.

Social Events That Will Mark the Inauguration of the Fall Season.

GERMAN AND COTILLON CLUBS

Dates Arranged for This Month's Dances—Opera House—Six Night's Engagement of the Peruchi-Beldeni Company.

"A Western Judge," will be the opening bill of the Peruchi Beldeni Company's six nights' engagement at the Opera House commencing to-morrow night. Chelso D. Peruchi and Ella Beldeni appear in the leading roles and are supported by a company said to be of unusual merit. The Carleton Sisters and the black face artist, Emile Subers, have charge of the specialty work and their work elsewhere is highly spoken of by the press. The box sheet for the initial performance opened yesterday at Gerken's and seats may be secured there all day to-morrow. The admission is 10, 20 and 30 cents, and ladies accompanied by a person holding a paid 30 cent ticket Monday night will be admitted free.

A pleasing and instructive recital was that at Schubert Hall yesterday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock by the pupils of Miss Cannie Chasten. The following programme was rendered in a manner that attested the proficiency of the pupils:

Polonaise (in A) ..... Chopin
Mis Ida Brown.
Nocturne (in D major) ..... Colas
Miss Rena Johnson.
Song Without Words (consolation) ..... Mendelssohn
Miss Maud Bullock.
Prelude and Figure (in B flat major) ..... Bach
Master James Craft.
Sonata Op (7 No. 4) ..... Beethoven
Miss Fannie Corbett.

These recitals are regular Saturday concerts by Miss Chasten's class.

Next week will mark the inauguration of the fashionable dance season in Wilmington.

All arrangements have been perfected by L'Arioso German Club and L'Agile Cotillon Club and the committees from these clubs have settled upon satisfactory plans. The dances will take place the latter portion of each month, the clubs alternating as to the dates.

Dates for this month's dances have already been arranged and society is looking forward to the events with eagerness. L'Agile Club will give the initial dance on Wednesday evening, October 26th. The dance of L'Arioso Club will follow close upon it, that event having been arranged for Thursday evening, October 27th. These dances will continue until the beginning of Lent and will be the social events of each month.

The past week has been especially noticeable and attractive to the social world, for the number of Fall and Winter millinery openings. The devote of society cannot give all her time to pleasure, she must expend much of her time in keeping up with the "fads and fancies" of fashion, and for this reason opening days are looked forward to with interest by the fair sex. The openings of the various emporiums took place on Thursday and Friday last. Taylor's Bazaar, Johnson & Fore's and Mrs. A. E. Canady's were thronged with visitors, both days, and to the feminine eye all were artistic successes.

The tasty decorations of stores and show-cases; the bewildering display of ribbons and laces in newest shades and fancies; the latest creations in hats and bonnets; and the latest fads in notions created by the inventive genius who makes the fashion plates, all came in for inspection and a share of the praise.

On Wednesday last Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Goodsell Parmele announced by card the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ethel to Mr. Guy Adams Cardwell. The ceremony will take place the evening of Wednesday, October 26th, in Grace Church, at half-past six o'clock. The bride elect is one of Wilmington's accomplished daughters. She has only recently returned from Greensboro Female College with high honors. The prospective groom is a highly esteemed and popular young man and a confidential attache of the Atlantic Coast Line. They will, of course, make Wilmington their future home.

Naval Stores Market.

The receipts of naval stores on this market for the week ending Oct. 14th are as follows: Spirits turpentine, 458 casks; rosin, 1,592 barrels; tar, 1,553 barrels; crude turpentine, 193 barrels. For the corresponding week in 1897, the receipts were 499 casks spirits turpentine, 1,601 barrels rosin, 957 barrels tar, 206 barrels crude turpentine. It will be observed that the receipts are about the same. There was nothing doing in spirits turpentine and rosin yesterday. The spirits turpentine market has, however, held up pretty well during the week, the price averaging about 30 cents throughout.

Merchants' Association.

The annual meeting of the Merchants' Association, which was adjourned from October 10th, will be held at the office of the Association in the S. A. L. building, Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th, at 8 o'clock. It will be remembered that the annual meeting was postponed last Monday night, so as to tender their headquarters to the meeting of the Merchants and Employer's Association.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Smite 'em hip and thigh.

— Hotter and hotter grows the campaign.

— Don't falter, white men. "To hesitate is to be lost."

— It looks like its going to be a prairie fire in this Congressional district.

— "Up, guards, and at them!" The cause of good government is the issue.

— The tug John Hardin with the barge Carrie L. Tyler in tow arrived at this port late yesterday afternon.

— We don't know yet whether it's going to be a cyclone or a tornado that will strike the Republicans on the 8th of November.

— Justice Bornemann had two submissions to-day. One was for disorderly conduct; the other for assault and battery.

— The white Republican vote polled in New Hanover in the coming election will be the smallest ever cast in the county.

— The rector having returned to the city the regular services will be conducted at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day.

— It is a little early, but we must remind every unregistered Democrat that next Saturday, Oct. 22nd, will be his last chance.

— There are scores of negroes who will not vote the ticket to be "nominated" by the Republican ring of this county on the 29th.

— What could be more striking and impressive than the picture shown on this page of the STAR? Are the white men of North Carolina ready?

— Regular religious services will be held at the Seaman's Bethel to-day at 3 o'clock. Seamen and rivermen are especially invited. All are welcome.

— The Mayor had one submission for disorderly conduct yesterday. N. Carmen was the offender and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

— During the week just past six marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds. Five of these were to colored couples and only one to a white couple.

— Seven recruits for Battery I, Second U. S. Artillery, arrived on the early morning train via the A. C. L. yesterday. They went down to Fort Caswell on the afternoon boat.

— The Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector of St. John's Church, Fayetteville, will officiate at St. James' Church in this city to-morrow (Sunday) morning and afternoon at the usual hours.

— Our Raleigh correspondent says Democratic leaders and speakers, who have canvassed the Sixth district report in Raleigh that it is better organized than any other in the State.

— There will be a great gathering of white men at Lumberton to-morrow. The Red-Shirts and the Robeson Rough Riders will be out in force. Doughton, Turner, Bennett and other speakers will be there.

— The Wilmington cotton market closed yesterday firm on a basis of five cents per pound for middling. This is an eighth higher than yesterday's closing. The receipts were 4,307 bales against 4,324 same day last year.

— One marriage license was issued to-day—to John Pigford and Tamah Kelly, a colored couple from Cape Fear township. They were married shortly afterward by R. J. Jordan, a negro magistrate of Cape Fear township.

— To-night at the Brooklyn Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Kramer, will deliver a special sermon on the subject: "The man with the wrong suit of clothes on." The hour for service is 7.45 o'clock and the public generally is cordially invited.

— The entire crew of sailors on the British steamship Evandale, which arrived here yesterday, is composed of Chinamen, 26 in number. By the United States law they are forbidden to land on our soil and consequently will have to remain on board the Evandale until she clears.

— President James W. Monroe, of the Second Regiment Band, by a card in this morning's paper, expresses his heartfelt thanks to the employers of the members of his band for the pleasant manner in which they are excused on alloccasions when the band's services are required.

— A young man who reaches the age of twenty one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the State twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.

Carolina Truckers' Association.

In compliance with a resolution passed by the East Carolina Truckers' Association, which met in Wilmington on Tuesday last, the President, Mr. W. L. Hill, of Warsaw, yesterday gave out the appointments for the Executive Committee for this organization. They are: Mr. W. L. Hill, by virtue of his office, chairman; Mr. J. S. Westbrook, of Faison; Mr. J. A. Westbrook, of Mount Olive; Mr. G. Z. French, of Wilmington; and Mr. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn.

Lumberton Fair.

The annual Fair of the Robeson County Fair Association will be held at Lumberton, November 2nd, 3rd and 4th. All space for exhibits free.

J. H. REHDER & COMPANY.

Handsome Store of One of the Most Enterprising Dry Goods Firms in Wilmington.

"The prettiest store in Wilmington," is the exclamation of every one, who visits Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co's mammoth department store, 617-619 North Fourth street, since it has been so elegantly remodelled and painted. The building has been practically rebuilt and is one of the most commodious store rooms in the city. The plans were by Mr. H. E. Bonitz, the architect, and for architectural perfection, have no superior. The front is of galvanized iron, neatly pencilled and painted to represent the finest pressed brick. The front is practically a solid plate glass show window, containing the neatest display of dry goods, shoes, etc., in the city. On the second floor in the front is a large bay window, which is used for displaying their large line of carpets and mattings. At the rear of the store, they have recently built two large warehouses, one 60x80, the other 25x30, to be used as a store room for goods in the original packages, for the wholesale trade. The store proper has a frontage of fifty feet and a length of eighty feet, the whole giving the firm a total floor space of over 15,000 square feet.

Mr. Rehder, the principal member of the firm, commenced merchandising on a small capital in Wilmington about eleven years ago. Since that time the business has gradually increased in volume, until now, besides their large retail business, they wholesale quantities of goods in North and South Carolina. Their stock of goods is confined to no particular line, consisting of everything except groceries—they do not handle groceries.

Messrs. Rehder & Company have in charge of the different departments polite and efficient salesmen and saleslades. They are: Dress goods department, Messrs. R. C. Platt and E. F. Jones; millinery department, Miss Sallie Boinest; notion department, Miss Emma Atkinson; hats and gents' furnishing department, Mr. E. C. Moore; clothing department, Mr. J. C. Haar; carpet department, Mr. Ed Bunting; shoe department, Mr. Arthur Schulken; wholesale department, Mr. Carl Rehder. Mr. W. Strauss is cashier, Miss Louise Bappler is bookkeeper and Mr. J. C. McMillan is their travelling representative.

The phenomenal growth of this firm demonstrates fully the fact that merchandising, when backed by brains, perseverance and pluck, is a most successful avocation in life. That the mercantile career of Messrs. Rehder & Co. has been crowned with success, no one can doubt after a visit to their store.

CRIMINAL COURT ADJOURNED.

The Term Came to an End Yesterday by Limitation—The Grand Jury's Report.

The Circuit Criminal Court adjourned yesterday, the term having expired by limitation. A large number of cases still await trial, but these will be disposed of at a special term of the court which will probably be called next month. The grand jury completed its labors and at noon made its report to Judge Blythe through its foreman, John J. Fowler, Esq. The grand jury reported having returned 91 true bills, 15 not true and that they had also made 8 presentments. They reported having inspected the county home, county jail and court house. The county home they found in good condition and well kept; the jail was also in good condition with the exception of the basement portion which needed whitewashing. They also recommended better ventilation; the repairing of the heaters and that provision be made for blankets for the use of the prisoners.

The report concluded with commendatory remarks upon the excellent condition of the county court house under Mr. Jordan Branch's janitorship.

The report was accepted and the jury discharged with the thanks of the court.

Only three cases were disposed of at yesterday's sitting, the rest of the day being taken up with unfinished business. They were:

State vs. Emeline Brown, slander; guilty, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Georgia King, larceny; not guilty.

State vs. George Grant, assault and battery; settled on payment of costs.

Joseph Smith, the negro found guilty on Friday of trespass, was given six months in the county house of correction.

Judge Blythe took occasion in sentencing Smith, to criticise the management of the house of correction, and instructed the solicitor to investigate the reports that prisoners were allowed to go and come at will. "When I send prisoners to the work house," said the Judge, "I intend that they shall be put at hard labor." Judge Blythe remained over in the city to-day.

Mortuary Statistics.

According to the records in the health office there were seven births in the city the past week—all colored.

The deaths for the same length of time reached nine. Of these, five were white and four colored.

Deaths resulted from the following causes: Malaria 2; heart disease 1; meningitis 1; continued fever 1; malnutrition 1; cholera infantum 1; unknown causes 2.

NORTH CAROLINA'S WOMANHOOD APPEALS TO WHITE MEN FOR PROTECTION.

A FULL ATTENDANCE.

White Government Union of Two Divisions of the Fifth Ward—Largest Meeting Yet Held.

The White Government Union of the First and Second divisions of the Fifth ward met last night at Democratic headquarters in the old National Bank building. The meeting was probably the largest of its kind held since the campaign opened, all of the available space in the large room being occupied, and many were standing in the doors and sitting in the windows. President A. N. Biggs presided, and Secretary George W. Cameron was at his post.

The committee appointed by the president to invite John D. Bellamy, Esq., to address the meeting reported that Mr. Bellamy was greatly fatigued by his canvass of the week and would have to decline. On motion, the president appointed another committe to invite Mr. Bellamy to address the Fifth ward Democrats from the stand, corner of Seventh and Castle streets, next Saturday night. This committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. W. D. Savage, H. H. Parker and R. B. Burriss, and is also to make arrangements for a torch-light procession should Mr. Bellamy accept the invitation.

During the meeting speeches were made by several prominent men of the city, and fifteen new names were added to the already large list of members.

AN OUTRAGEOUS ACT.

Negro Uses Sling Shot on a Young White Boy.

Geo. Davis, an eighteen year old lad, who is employed by Messrs. W. P. Oldham & Co., at their produce commission place on Dock street, was hit in the eye with a missile from a sling shot yesterday and painfully if not seriously injured. Young Davis was driving a delivery cart for his employers and was engaged in delivering goods in the southern section of the city. While on South Seventh street with his team he was hailed by a negro boy. As he turned to answer the negro, the latter drew the sling and shot it, the missile striking Davis in the right eye inflicting a painful injury. The injured boy drove immediately to a physician and was given medical attention. His assailant was not arrested.

JUSTICE McGOWAN'S COURT.

Case of an Assault in the Very Temple of Justice.

Justice McGowan had only one case before his court yesterday and that was a submission.

The case was that of J. H. Webber, col, said to be a member of the Board of Audit and Finance. Webber made an assault on another colored man, Henry Bowen, at the very door of Justice McGowan's court room Deputy Sellers was standing near and promptly made the arrest, carrying him into court, where he was taxed with the costs in the case.

Bowen, it seems, had applied the term "trash" to Webber, and this was the cause of the whole racket.

Lost His Equilibrium.

A negro by the name of Henry Wilkins happened to an accident yesterday that might have entailed serious consequences. As it chanced, however, Henry had exchanged a goodly portion of his wages for "old corn" and suffered no serious injury. He attempted to descend the steps from the upper story of the old court house and fell headlong to the bottom, the bad liquor causing the loss of his equilibrium. The shock to his nervous sensibilities was the only injury sustained.

The Campaign Buttons of the White Government Union may be had in large or small quantities, of C. W. Yates & Co., Wilmington, N. C. †

DEFENDING NEGRO RULE.

There are a good many fusion orators on the stump in North Carolina. They are all giving aid and comfort to negro rule, are contributing their assistance to fastening it upon North Carolina, but there are none of them, so far as we know, who have had the nerve to advocate and defend it except Congressman White, Collector Dancy and aspiring statesman "Prof." Ike Smith. These are all negroes. Two of them are already office-holders, one trying to be re-elected to Congress, the third to be elected to the Legislature, and later on to Congress, and consequently it is quite natural that they should contend that it is right for negroes to hold office, and right that they should rule when they can. In his speech at Charlotte, Collector Dancy while incidently apologizing for negroes holding office by saying that there were very very few in office, said:

"It is charged that negroes have been elected to important offices in this State. This is true in counties like Halifax, Edgecombe and New Hanover, where there are large negro majorities. Even the Democrats pretend to believe with Jefferson that all governments derive their powers from the consent of the governed. Why should this not be true to-day?"

This is a bold declaration for negro rule when the negroes are numerous enough to rule and in being bold is entitled to much more credit than the sneaking apologies for negro rule that are made by Dancy himself and other political miscegenationists. It is not only Jeffersonian doctrine but a fundamental doctrine of the Republic, but when it was enunciated it did not apply to and was not intended to apply to negroes, who then constituted no part of the citizenship of this country, and at that time it was not contemplated that they would. The negro was not a considered factor when that doctrine was enunciated, and never became a factor in government until the necessities (or the excuse given) of war brought them emancipation, and the necessities of politics brought them the ballot. The ballot was given them as a party measure with the full knowledge that they were not qualified to use it intelligently, but with the expectation that they could be used to Republicanize the South, and thus offset the gains that the Democratic party was making in the North and thus keep the Republican party in power.

The South was opposed to the enfranchisement of the negroes, which was forced upon her. She accepted the inevitable, and made the best of the situation, but she never did recognize the right of the negro to rule, and has never yet permitted any portion of her white people to be subjected to it, if she could help it. Collector Dancy spoke thus to show that the negroes when in the majority have the right to rule, ignoring the fact that the people who, he says, have the right to rule were slaves then, and that this declaration had no reference to them whatever. But they are free now, and are voters, and Collector Dancy contends they have the right to rule when they are in the majority.

If being in the majority in one county gives them the right to rule in that county, it would give them the right to rule in any number of counties, and to rule North Carolina, if they have power enough to rule the party which rules the State. He would argue, of course, that being in the majority the negroes have the right to rule South Carolina and Mississippi and such sections of other States where they may be more numerous than the whites. Wouldn't that put South Carolina and Mississippi in a nice plight? But Dancy contends that they have a right to rule these States, and that the Democrats of those States perpetrated a great wrong and repudiated the Jeffersonian doctrine when they protected themselves from negro domination by the enactment of qualified suffrage laws. If the negroes have a right to rule in Halifax, Edgecombe, Craven or New Hanover, as Collector Dancy contends, white people have no right to complain, and the negroes may go on and exercise that right wherever they can. And this is precisely what they are proceeding to do and what they will continue to do if they can.

They have over three hundred negro magistrates now. They will have six hundred if they can. They have over a thousand negroes holding office in the State now. They will have three times a thousand if they can. They have one Congressman now. They will have more if they can. They will have negro judges, more negro solicitors, and will doubtless soon be insisting on representation on the State ticket with the Republicans until they have negroes in the State offices at Raleigh. It is right, according to Collector Dancy, that they should rule where and when they can, and they will most certainly not be satisfied with ruling in a few counties when they may be asserting their "rights" rule in many.

This is precisely what we have been asserting, namely, that we are seeing but the beginning of negro rule and that in a very mild dose compared with what we will have to take if the mongrel party now in power, which has given negro rule such a start, wins at the next election. Such a victory would be a practical endorsement of negroes in office and of negro rule; the negroes would so accept it, would be emboldened to demand more and their white associates, feeling that they had been vindicated, would give them more to keep on good terms with them, and it would not be very long before the negro in the Republican party would be controlling the white men in it as the white men have been controlling the negroes. Perhaps Dancy's ingenuous candor may have the effect of opening the eyes of white Republicans.

HE DIDN'T WANT IT.

Office Hunter Dockery is a unique figure in politics, unique enough to be amusing when he is not disgusting. When he started out in his campaign [illegible] and the Populists he was talking to that touching story about how his dying pa called him to his bedside and pledged him never to "go back on silver, the poor man's money," and how he crossed his heart and swore a swear, or words to that effect, that he never—no, never—would. But some how or other that legend didn't impress the unsophisticated quite as much as he thought it would when he was composing it, and he now plays another fake. In his speech at Charlotte last Tuesday night, where he held forth principally to colored sovereigns, the Observer quotes him thus;

"I was nominated by both the Republicans and the Populists. And had it not been that the great principles of local self-government and an honest election law were involved in this campaign, I should not have consented to accept the nomination."

This is just too funny for anything. Office Hunter took it for granted that the people he was talking to didn't know about his constitutional hankering for office, and he also took it for granted that they didn't know anything about what took place in that Republican convention that nominated him, how they refused to recognize him as a Republican or consider his candidacy until his kinsman made that speech recanting the letter he wrote withdrawing from the Republican party when the Populists nominated him for Lieutenant Governor, and declared that he was as good and as sound a Republican as he ever was, and then they nominated him. But he had to pull for it, to confess his sin and be forgiven, on the implied pledge that he would never do so any more.

And now he has the cheek to say he didn't want the nomination, and wouldn't have accepted it if that election law were not in danger. Office Hunter is an old coon, he has been in politics a long time, but he must be getting in his dotage to feed such stuff as that to people, even to negroes.

THEY ARE ALL ALIKE.

Spencer B. Adams, of Caswell county, ex-Judge, the law-expounder who delivered that political speech in his charge to the jury at Columbus court, in which he substantially said that rape was less odious than seduction, because there was an element of courage in it, is now running as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth District, endorsed by the fusion Populists. As a warning to these and other Populists, M. Oliver, chairman of the county Populist committee has issued the following, addressed to the Populists of the Fifth District:

I understand that the Populists in most of the counties of this district have formed what is termed a "Fusion with the Republicans," and endorsed Spencer B. Adams for Congress. I thought the Populist party was a party of principle and for reform, but not when we go off after such men as S. B. Adams, a man who fooled the party when he was nominated for Judge. I was in the convention two years ago in Durham and was called on to know how S. B. Adams stood on the free coinage of silver. I told them I had heard Adams say he would vote for the free coinage of silver no matter who was nominated, and he was nominated with that understanding. But what did he do at the election? He voted the whole Republican ticket—negroes and all. I suppose he is telling now that he is for free silver! I tell you he is one of the shrewdest politicians in this county, and would fool his maker if it were possible. I have always been opposed to fusion, and I have never voted a fusion ticket yet. Populists of the Fifth Congressional District, let me urge you as a friend to Populism, drop S. B. Adams at once. You don't know the man.

Very respectfully,
M. OLIVER.

Ch'm Pop. Party Ex. Com. Caswell Co.
Yanceyville, N. C., Oct. 8, 1898.

That shows what a slippery chap Spencer B. Adams is, but Adams is just like the rest of them and is fully as reliable as any of the engineers and backers of this fusion business. Senator Pritchard, Office Hunter Dockery, Congressmen Linney and Pearson and the negro White all got Populist support in the last election on the ground that they were for free silver and every one of them betrayed it when the first test was made. But their betrayal is not a whit greater than that of Cy Thompson, Harry Skinner, Hal Ayer, S. Otho Wilson, Rocky Mount Butler and other alleged, masquerading Populists who are now pulling in the traces with them, and supporting for Congress men who are avowed gold men, men that they know will oppose and vote against free silver every time.

THE COLOR LINE IN CANADA.

The Radical and Populist fusion stumpers in this State make much ado over "raising the race issue" in this campaign, when they themselves raised and forced it by filling offices with negroes, and some of the very worst kind of negroes, to rule over white people.

But the race issue is not an issue in North Carolina alone. We are having some very lively and impressive illustrations of it now in Illinois, where attempts have been made to supplant white labor with imported negroes from the South. It exists on the other side of the dividing line between the North and the South and is as sharply defined there as it is in the South, and it exists in Canada, too, where it is quite as sharply drawn as it is in any part of this country as will be seen by the following, which we find in the Asheville Citizen, clipped from a Canadian paper:

"Another attempt is to be made by the school board to induce the colored people to accept a shool of their own. If they will agree they will be given Cameron avenue school for their exclusive use, colored teachers and a colored janitor will be appointed, and they will be allowed to run the school as they see fit.

"It has long been the complaint of the colored people that they are debarred from office on account of race prejudice, and the only position that has been given to them is the very minor one of pound-keeper. Many of them are well educated and would make excellent teachers, but they get no opportunity. If they accept the offer of the board they will have a chance of showing what they can do. Otherwise, it is the intention to give them nothing. The law provides that where five colored people, heads of families, petition for a separate school, it shall be given them."

This is in the town of Windsor, in the province of Ontario, Canada, where the negroes are so few that there is no danger of their ever becoming a factor in politics. But there they are not allowed to hold office. To read this without locating it one might suppose that it was from some Southern paper, and the negro champion would cite it as an illustration of Southern, Democratic prejudice and proscription. But the fact is there is not an Anglo-Saxon country in the world where the race line is not drawn, nor one where the idea of negro domination would be for a moment tolerated.

WOULD YOU?

And would you have the curtain fall
Between your life and mine—
'Twixt you and me,
And so have darkness cover all—
The sun to never shine?
For so 't would be.

Would you have silence, like a wall,
Forever block our ways—
Hold us apart,
Keep me from you, my life, my all—
We who in other days
Were heart to heart?

Shall all my longings be in vain—
Shall all the prayers I've said
Find no reply?
Shall all my loving end in pain,
And all my hopes be dead?
Then let me die.

Yes, let me die, for what is life—
Let me have all it brings,
And lacking you,
It is not worth the toil and strife—
The smarts, the hurts, the stings,
For joys so few.

'T were better that I pass away
Into another land—
A land more fair,
And wait, with all the hope I may,
The touch of your dear hand
When we meet there.

POINTS POLITICAL.

A REPUBLICAN FOR NINETEEN YEARS.

Editor Enterprise: I have been voting the Republican ticket for nineteen years, but the time has come when all white men should stand together to redeem our grand old State from fusion rule. I shall continue to vote the Republican national ticket, but shall do all in my power to defeat the fusion ticket in this State. Hoping that all self-respecting white men will do the same, I am, yours truly, E. J. GOODSON.
Sherrill's Ford, N. C., October 10th.
—Newton Enterprise.

WONT TALK ABOUT IT.

In the last campaign the fusion office-seekers went up and down the State wailing and crying with all the earnestness of a Peter the Hermit that fees and salaries should be reduced to a level with cheap farm products. They got in on this cry. They put up the fees and salaries and now they swear that the old cry about a reduction of fees and salaries is a dead issue and they don't want to talk about the dead.
—Lexington Dispatch.

NEVER TOO OLD TO REFORM.

A life-long Republican of 60 years of age stated here this week that he had never voted anything but the Republican ticket since that party has been in existence, but that this time he can't stomach it—that he is a white man and will vote for white supremacy. He says it is an infernal shame the way the Republican traders and traffickers have debauched and humiliated the intelligence and virtue in the Eastern part of the State.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

A SUGGESTION TENDERED.

The negroes have been talking of organizing black unions in opposition to the White government Unions. We suggest to them that they might get some dusky damsels to prepare a black banner to present to the township that gives the biggest black vote. The white people are contesting for a handsome silk banner. There is no reason why the contest might not be made livelier by the negroes contesting for a black banner. We give the fusion leaders the benefit of this suggeston, to arouse enthusiasm in their party.—Kinston Free Press.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on R. R. BELLAMY, druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded. †

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this country and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa., For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

COSTUME WITH POLONAISE DRAPERY FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

POLONAISES, or modifications of them, which are seen on many of the imported gowns from Paris, are often simulated by long apron effects, which may be of the same or of a different material from the skirt, since tunic overdresses in various forms are a promise of the autumn.

A typical French cloth costume in brown and blue—a combination of the season—is made with a long pointed apron front closed in the centre below the waist-line with several oxidized silver buttons. This polonaise drapery is short at the sides, and then descends in long points towards the back, the fulness of the under circular skirt flaring out between the points in fan effect, but with no gathers or pleats at the waist. Stitched cords border the entire over-dress and trim the under-skirt in many parallel rows. The width of skirt at foot is four yards. The stylish bolero coat has a straight front, buttoned double-breasted over a draped corsage of a blue peau de soie, trimmed at the throat with a knotted cravat. The broad revers are of Persian lamb, and the little turban with bird-of-paradise plume is of black velvet, furnishing with the fur a touch of black to the costume. The proper cut of the gown can be obtained from HARPER'S BAZAR Cut Paper Patterns.

Quantity of material for gown—6 yards of 54 inch cloth; 1 yard of silk.

— Nashville Graphic: William Brown, who lived about one mile from Nashville had a yellow chill last Sunday and only lived a few hours afterward. He was about 65 years old. —— Mrs. Sam. P. Whitfield, who lived about three miles from Nashville on the Red Oak Road had a yellow chill about two weeks ago and seemed to be getting along very nicely until last Tuesday when she was taken worse and died Wednesday evening.

— Wadesboro Messenger: The machinery for Messrs. F. Hargrave's and James A. Leak's pant and underwear factory is now arriving, and will in a short time be placed in position and operatians commenced. The plant will consist of fifteen or twenty sewing machines and all other machinery necessary for the manufacture of pants and underwear, and will employ some twenty operatives. The machinery will be driven by a 5-horse gasoline engine. —— A mad steer at the depot last Friday and Saturday created a great deal of excitement. The steer was being weighed preparatory for shipment, when it broke loose and charged everything in site. Several persons were charged, but only Mr. G. M. Hunsucker was hurt. He was knocked down and painfully, though not seriously, gored. The steer was finally killed Saturday by being shot from a tree by Mr. Hunsucker.

— Monroe Enquirer: Mrs. Martha Traywick died of malarial fever, at her home in North Monroe, on the 11th inst. She was 55 years old. Mr. S. A. Cook, who lives six miles north of Monroe, tells us of a battle between a large hawk and John Cuthbertson, a young colored man, which took place last week. The hawk alighted on a limb and the limb broke and the hawk fell to the ground. Cuthbertson made for the hawk and the ferocious bird with his beak and claws lacerated his assailant's legs and hands in a terrible manner. The hawk was finally killed by Cuthbertson. —— Stephen Barrett, a colored man, who lives a half mile northwest of town, lost his house and all its contents by fire last Saturday night soon after dark. Stephen lives alone and was up town when his cabin was burned, and nothing was saved from it. The origin of the fire is unknown. Stephen says he wants it understood that he did not have $400 in his house as has been reported, but that 18 cents was all the money he left in his cabin. Contributions have been right liberal to Stephen and as he is a hard working, industrious darkey he will soon have another house on his lot.

Three Doctors In Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct 15.—Cotton market opened steady with prices 1 to 3 points higher on demand from shorts, started by rumors that general frosts had visited the Northern portion of the belt last night. Liverpool news was quite encouraging and added to the better feeling. A full reaction took place, however, shortly after the call, under realizing, and light bear hammering directly due to failure on the part of the official weather map to report frosts of consequence. Scalpers quickly changed their point of view and joined with the bear element. Prices slowly sagged below last night's figures under this pressure, with trading spasmodically active. Heavy receipts at all points spurred sellers on. Later in the forenoon futures were inactive at about the lowest point. The close was steady at net unchanged prices to 2 points lower. Estimated receipts at the ports for the day 54,000 bales against 60,296 last week and 47,326 actual last year. Estimated receipts at the ports for the week 40,000 bales, against 385,763 actual last week and 369,319 actual last year.

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life ot any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time"

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,
Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general traveling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. W. L. DEROSSET,

BLOOD POISON

Symptoms:

Repulsive sores, bones full of excruciating aches and pains, swollen glands, copper colored spots, sore throat, postules, etc.

CURED BY

Botanic Blood Balm (B.B.B.)

The Great Blood Remedy.

There is no remedy on earth that can cure all stages of Blood Poison except by the use of B. B. B. It does not drive the disease in, but it forces all blood poison out through the skin, the kidneys, bowels and glandular system. It cures speedily and at a price the poorest can afford to pay.

Here is the case of Mr. Ward, of Georgia, who was cured 10 years ago and is well to-day:

Maxey's, Oglethorpe County, Ga.

For 12 or 14 years I have been a great sufferer with a terrible form of blood poison which ran into the secondary, and finally it was pronounced a tertiary form. My head, face and shoulders became almost a solid mass of corruption, and finally the disease commenced eating away my skull bones. I became so horribly repulsive that for three years I absolutely refused to let people see me. I used large quantities of the most noted blood remedies, and applied to nearly all physicians near me, but my condition continued to grow worse, and all said I must surely die. My bones became the seat of excruciating aches and pains; my nights were passed in misery; I was reduced in flesh and strength; my kidneys were terribly deranged, and life became a burden to me. I bought one bottle of B. B. B. It was used with decided benefit, and I continued its use, and when eight or ten bottles had been used was pronounced sound and well. Hundreds of scars can now be seen on me, looking like a map who had been burned and then restored. My case is well known in this county, and for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted I think it my duty to give the facts to the public, and to extend my heartfelt thanks for so valuable a remedy. I am now well and no return of the disease has occurred. ROBERT WARD.

Mr. Robert Ward was in the army with me; I have known him ever since, and he has stated the truth about his own case, and the effect of the B. B. B. on him. A. T. BRIGHTWELL,
General Merchant. Maxey's, Ga.

Should any one be afflicted with any stage of Blood Poison, Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings, Rheumatism, old Ulcers and Sores, Tumors, Skin Diseases, Kidney Troubles, Eczema, Catarrh, Mercurial Poison, Fetter, Scaldhead, broken down constitution, or any other disease caused by impure blood, B. B. B.—BOTANIC BLOOD BALM—will cure you after every other known remedy has failed. Can be taken with perfect safety. It leaves no harmful results or bad after effects. B. B. B. is the only quick and permanent Blood Purifier on earth. One bottle will test it in any case. Call on your druggist who will sell B. B. B. at $1 per large bottle, or send direct to us and we will ship to any point, all charges prepaid, six large bottles on receipt of $5. Remember, B. B. B does not contain mineral or vegetable poison, Book free.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16.

ILLINOIS RACE TROUBLE.

Negroes Driven Out of Virden Cared for at St. Louis—Want to Return to Alabama.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

VIRDEN, ILL., October 15.—Attorney William Patten, of the Chicago-Virden Coal Company, is authority for the statement that no further attempt will be made to land here the Alabama negroes, whose coming resulted in the loss of so many lives. There is under consideration, according to Attorney Patten, an attempt to fix the responsibility for the tragedy upon the Governor of Illinois. The lawyer declares that it is the intention of the coal company to press the matter, and it will be for the grand jury of McCoupin county to say whether Gov. Tanner shall answer in court.

J. F. Eyster, manager of the company store, who was so nearly killed by the mob Wednesday, is recovering. The militia commander, Col. Young, has placed a guard of soldiers at the house where Eyster was taken.

ST. LOUIS, October 15.—The fifty-seven negro men, with their fifteen women and children, who, were brought to St. Louis after being driven out of Virden, are being cared for by the city temporarily. The negroes desire to be taken back to Alabama, but they have no transportation.

A telegram was received from the Chicago-Virden Coal Company, asking to have the negro miners kept here, the coal company to pay their expenses. The telegram said that the negroes would be kept in St. Louis until protection for them at Virden could be had and then they would be taken there and put to work in the mines at that place. Thiel's men and the police immediately began to round up the blacks, who had scattered around the city, and took them to Four Courts, where they will be kept until other quarters are secured.

TO TOUR THE ARMY CAMPS.

Members of the War Investigating Commission Leave Washington for Jacksonville, Fla.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—The members of the War Investigating Commission did not hold a session to day, but devoted the time to preparation for the tour of the army camps, which begins to-morrow.

The commission will leave Washington at about 4 P. M., to-morrow, going to Jacksonville, Fla., where they are scheduled to arrive about noon Monday. They propose going direct to the military camp there, where they will take the testimony of officers, men and others who can throw light upon the conduct of the war, giving especial attention to complaints that appear to have any foundation.

From Jacksonville the commission expect to visit in order: Tampa, Atlanta, Anniston, Huntsville, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Lexington, and Middleton, Penna, where Camp Meade is located. Later they will go to Camp Wikoff, on Long Island. It is thought the Southern tour will consume two or three weeks, and possibly longer, as it is the intention of the commission to make a very thorough inquiry at all points.

They will travel on a special train furnished by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The train will include dining coach and sleeping and parlor cars for the accommodation of the entire party, which will number 156 persons in addition to the nine members of the commission.

SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Committee Appointed to Investigate the Charges of Mismanagement.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BALTIMORE, October 15.—J. Southgate Lemmon, chairman of the annual meeting of stockholders of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad Company, which controls the Seaboard Air Line system, has appointed a committee to investigate the charges of mismanagement of the affairs of the company, preferred by Thomas F. Ryan, of New York.

Mr. Ryan is a large stockholder of the company. The personnel of the committee is Charles H. Krumbar, of Philadelphia, and Lloyd Jackson and Decory W. Thom, of this city. The resolution providing for this committee was adopted at the annual meeting of the company held in Portsmouth, Va., on the 24th instant.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Record of Games Played Yesterday by the Clubs.

Philadelphia — Philadelphia, 8; Brooklyn, 12.

Pittsburg-Chicago game postponed on account of cold weather.

Boston and Baltimore wound up the championship season of 1898 to-day in a slugging contest. Twenty-eight hits and a score of thirty-seven bases were made by the two teams. The ex-champions should have won, but fielded poorly and their errors gave the game to the two-time pennant-winners from the Hub. Three innings were played of the second game when darkness put a stop to hostilities.

NOT ON OFFICIAL BALLOT.

The New York State Ticket of the Chicago Platform Democracy.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ALBANY, N. Y., October 15.—The State ticket of the Chicago platform Democracy will not go on the official ballot. The certificate placing this independent ticket in the field was received by the Secretary of State at 11 o'clock last night, and in examining it he found the jurat of the notary public on the Ulster county petition defective and notified the committee. The error was not corrected before the time of filing expired, at midnight, so the Secretary of State has ruled that the whole certificate is defective and its nominees cannot go on the official ballot.

WRECK OF THE STEAMER MOHEGAN

Out of One Hundred and Sixty-one Persons Only Forty-five Escaped.

THE STORY OF A SURVIVOR.

All the Officers of the Steamer Went Down With Her—About Thirty Bodies Washed Ashore—Nearly All the Passengers Drowned.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

FALMOUTH, ENG., Oct. 15.—From the best evidence obtainable at St. Keverine, it appears that the Mohegan foundered five minutes after she struck the rocks. She was going at full speed, struck twice, stopped and rapidly settled into the water. As the captain and the executive officers of the steamer went down with her, it has been impossible thus far to ascertain how she got out of her course, as Falmouth light and the coast were visible.

Among the incidents cited is the escape of the Pembertons. Mr. Pemberton jumped into a life-boat, his wife threw him three children and then leaped into the boat herself, and thus the whole family was saved.

ST. KEVERINE, October 15.—In the lower end of the church here lie fifteen bodies, among them those of four women and one twelve-year old girl. The bodies are laid out reverently. The faces of the victims present a sad sight, showing how rudely the waves and rocks played with their features. The whole village and neighborhood are alive with excitement and knots of men linger about talking with the rescued members of the crew.

It is exceedingly difficult to trace the events of the disaster, but so far as can be ascertained. it seems that the weather was not thick, but that a strong southeast wind was blowing and that there was a heavy ground swell on and a strong current running. Dinner was ready and Capt. Griffith was about to proceed to the saloon when a crash made it apparent that the steamer had gone ashore. The captain immediately went on deck and the survivors say they saw him on the bridge doing all that lay in the power of a brave man to lessen the disaster.

Authentic particulars of the events occurring after the ship struck are not yet obtainable. It seems, however, that one of the ship's boats containing several women got away safely, but was capsized. A number of its occupants were rescued by life-boats. Another boat with sixteen hands was picked up by a life-boat and safely got ashore, and two or three other persons managed to reach land.

Out of the 161 persons on board forty-five escaped. Up to a late hour to-night about thirty bodies have been washed ashore at different points. A southerly wind is now blowing, and it is expected that the bodies of many more victims will be recovered by to-morrow. An inquest will be held on Monday.

The rescued persons are receiving the greatest attention from the inhabitants, and the utmost kindness is being shown to the female passengers. Most of the passengers were Americans returning home.

A. C. L. Smith, who was among the saved, says his home is in Oregon. In a conversation with the representative of the Associated Press, Mr. Smith said this evening that he saw the captain on the bridge giving orders, which were carried out as far as possible. As the ship sank the captain ran along the side and sprang overboard. The vessel lurched and the passengers all seemed to be thrown into the water at the same moment. Captain Griffith is among the lost.

Mr. Smith, who is a strong swimmer, managed to get through the mass of people in the water and succeeded in evading several who tried to clutch him as he passed them. He says he swam for three hours and half before he reached the shore.

LONDON, October 15.—The officers and crew of the Mohegan number ninety six and of these thirty-three are known to have been saved. The body of R. A. Baxter, one of the passengers, has been recovered. The officers of the steamship company were busy until midnight answering inquiries. They still hope that the steamer's boats may have succeeded in saving others.

Harrowing scenes were witnessed to-day at the London office of the Atlantic Transport Company to which the wrecked steamer Mohegan belonged. A number of women fainted when the extent of the calamity became known and there was a constant stream of telegraph boys running to and from the office seeking for information or taking messages to anxious inquiries.

An Ill-fated Vessel.

The Mohegan it is now said has been an ill-fated vessel from the start. It is added that she was only bought by the transport company when their own boats had been sold to the United States government during the war. She was formerly the Cleopatra, of the Wilson and Furness-Leyland line and was bought direct from the Hull ship yard. She never ran for the Furness line and only made one voyage. This it is asserted was most unsatisfactory and friends of the crew say that her engines were defective and that her boilers leaked. She is further alleged to have arrived at New York in such a condition that she was sent home empty and her return voyage took several weeks, during which she drifted a whole day and night, owing to the trouble with her engines. For the past two weeks the steamer has been in dock undergoing repairs, but the managers say she was in perfect condition when she left port on this, her first voyage, under her new name. It is asserted, however, that in a 24 hour trial last week, her performances were very unsatisfactory, the crew did not wish to go on her on account of the previous defect in her engines. It is surmised that her engines broke down and that the vessel, in the rough sea and heavy gale which prevailed, drifted on the rocks.

The wrecked steamer was commanded by Captain Griffiths. Her chief officer was Mr. Couch, her second officer, Mr. Cole, and her third officer Mr. Hindmarsh.

Capt. Griffiths, who is missing, was formerly captain of the Manitoba and then captain of the Minnewaska, which was sold to the United States Government for use as a transport during the war with Spain.

FALMOUTH, October 15.—The survivors without exception speak in the highest terms of the devotion, heroism and coolness displayed by the officers and crew of the ill-fated steamer, and declare that all were instantaly at their posts when it was known that she had struck.

The perilous position of the ship was noticed on shore and a warning rocket was sent up, but it was too late then to avoid the catastrophe, which occurred so suddenly that there was not sufficient time to get all the life-saving boats out.

The scene was indescribable; men jumped overboard in agony of despair and the women passengers huddled together and refused to leave the deck. The officers remained on the bridge to the last and many instances of sacrifice are recorded.

Members of the crew are known to have stood by and watched the boats launched and put off when it was apparent that these were the only means by which their own lives could be saved.

A life boat with a load of forty persons, on its way to the shore, passed many who were battling in the water, whom it was impossible to save. The villagers, headed by the vicar and coast guard, stood on shore and cheered the boats. When the life boat entered the little cover the fishermen waded into the sea to help drag the boat up on the beach and tenderly carried the survivors to their homes which had been already prepared for their reception and the vicar attended the injured.

RED CROSS HOSPITALS.

Surgeon General Sternberg Does Not Approve of Their Establishment in Cuba or Porto Rico.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—Surgeon General Sternberg has written a letter to Mrs. Winthrop Cowdin, in New York, regarding the establishment of a Red Cross hospital in Cuba and Porto Rico, in which he says:

"I have received your kind letter of October 14th, enclosing a check for two thousand dollars for my special fund for extra comfort and luxuries for our sick and wounded soldiers. Accept my sincere thanks for this liberal contribution.

"I do not think favorably of the establishment of a hospital in Cuba or Porto Rico by the Red Cross Society for the reason that the war is over and the garrisons which are to be stationed in these islands will require a fully equipped hospital, which it is the duty of the government to provide and which it intends to provide.

"I appreciate very highly the valuable assistance which has been rendered by the Red Cross Society, but I think it would be demoralizing to our medical officers and to the service generally if we should continue to depend upon the contributions and voluntary assistance of patriotic citizens for the care of our sick in the the islands which have come into our possession."

ITALIAN IMMIGRANTS.

Large Number Arrived on Steamer Britannia Seeking to Enter New Orleans.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, October 15.—Eight policemen and twenty-six deputy sheriffs left the city to-day to intercept and prevent from entering the city a large party of Italian immigrants who came to America on the Britannia. The vessel was ordered to be held at the mouth of the river by the Board of Health out of fear that the landing here of 408 immigrants would furnish too much fresh material for the fever. The Britannia subsequently sailed for Pensacola and the Italians are seeking to enter by rail. They will not be permitted to come in, however. This morning their train was held at Pearl River.

U. S. CRUISER BROOKLYN.

Damages Sustained in the Battle Which Destroyed Cervera's Fleet.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A special naval board appointed to investigate the repairs necessary to the Brooklyn, Commodore Schley's flagship, because of damages sustained in the battle which destroyed Cervera's fleet, finds that the principal injury to the Brooklyn was caused by the entrance and explosion on the berth deck of a six-inch shell, shot holes in three smokestacks and two escape pipes, shot hole through hammock netting; injury to after engine ventilator by a six-inch projectile, three one-pounder shots through the plating and a hole in the forward deck.

FATAL SHOOTING.

Negro Soldier Killed by the Provost Guard at Lexington, Ky.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LEXINGTON, KY., October 15.—Intense excitement was caused among the negro soldiers by the fatal shooting of private Shedwic Floyd, Company I, Tenth immunes, by provost guard John Kane, Company D, 160th Indiana, at 10 o'clock to-night.

Floyd was under arrest and started to run. Twice he was ordered to halt by Kane. He cursed the latter, and Kane levelled his gun and shot him, the bullet entering the left side of his back and passing entirely through the body, perforating the lung. He died in a few hours.

The negro soldiers threaten Kate's life. The latter was ordered to his quarters by Provost Marshal Gaines.

GEORGIA HOMICIDE.

Soldier Killed by a Comrade in a Dispute Over a Game of Cards.

MACON, GA., October 15.—A special to the Telegraph from Athens, Ga., says: This afternoon Wm. K. Smith, of Bogart, Ga., shot and instantly killed Pat Wood.

At 4 o'clock the parties above mentioned, and J. S. Jenkins and John E. Harris were engaged in a game of cards at a point near the cemetery, when Smith grew angry with Wood and shot him, the ball going through the head, producing instant death.

All of the parties are members of the Second Georgia regiment, Company G. Smith escaped, and every effort for his capture is being made. Feeling against him among the soldiers is very strong.

FROST IN MISSISSIPPI.

Fifty-nine New Cases of Fever in the State Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 15.—The occurrence of frost at various points in the South is welcomed by the Marine Hospital Service authorities, who look for their continuance and a rapid diminution of the fever. The frost is reported officially at Jackson, Starkville, Columbia and Holly Springs, Miss.

To-day's dispatches regarding yesterday's new cases in the State of Mississippi report a total of fifty-nine.

M'KINLEY'S TOUR THROUGH THE WEST

Greeted With Ovations at Many Points on His Journey to Chicago.

SPEECHES AT MANY POINTS.

Vast Throngs—Enthusiastic and Noisy. Arrival of the Presidential Party at Chicago—A Hearty Greeting to the Visitors.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, ILLS., October 15.—The President of the United States arrived in Chicago over the Illinois Central to-night, and will be the central figure in the city's peace jubilee next week. Although much wearied by his long journey over the Great West and his arduous day at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, he said just before leaving the train: "Throughout the journey I have been deeply moved by the patriotism of the people and delighted with the evidence of their prosperity."

After the city limits were reached, crowds lined the enclosure beside the Illinois Central railroad, anxious to see the presidential train sweep by. The enthusiasm was unbounded, even when the President could not be seen. Mr. McKinley left the train at Thirty-ninth stree,t going direct to the home of Captain Lafayette McWilliams where Mrs. McKinley has been entertained since arriving from Canton.

The other members of the official party were taken care of at the leading hotels.

An effort is being made to secure the presence of Secretary John D. Long at the banquet Wednesday evening, when he will be asked to respond to the toast, "Our Navy." A telegram was sent him to-night urgently soliciting his presence, and it is thought that he will come.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., October 15.—Across the corn land of Illinois the train of President McKinley swept all night after leaving St. Louis, and to-day crossed the line into Indiana, reaching Terre Haute soon afterward. At all points where the President appeared the vast throngs were enthusiastic and noisy. The President spoke from a platform near the depot. He said in part:

"My fellow citizens: For several days we have been travelling through the great West, and everywhere we have gone great assemblages like this have greeted us. I do not misinterpret. I know what it means. It had no personal significance, and it does mean that all the people of all the sections are once more united under one flag, united in one purpose and patriotism. It means, my fellow-citizens, that the people of the United States want the victories of the army and of the navy to be recognized in the treaty of peace. It means that they want those of us who are charged with the administration of the government to see to it that the war was not in vain and that the just fruits of our achievements on land and sea shall not be lost.

DECATUR, ILLS., Oct 15.—The citizens of Arcola made exceptional preparations for the reception of the President. From the rear platform of his car he stepped over a carpeted passageway to a stand laden with flowers and covered with American flags. At the conclusion of his speech here the President called for three cheers for the army and navy which were given with a will. Then the President said: "Three cheers for the old flag." The response was given with great energy. One man near the platform waved his hat and shouted: "Dewey made them honor it." The President smiled at this remark and nodded his head as if in approval of the sentiment.

ADDITIONAL ARRESTS.

In Connection With the Alleged Plot Against Emperor William.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT, October 15.—Several additional arrests have been made in connection with the plot against Emperor William, who is now on his way to the Holy Land to be present at the consecration of the Church of the Savior at Jerusalem. Another box of bombs was found upon a table at the residence of a cafe keeper who was arrested Thursday evening. With the box were two bottles of wine and a quantity of provisions, as though they had been prepared for a traveller. They were probably intended to be taken by one of the conspirators taken into custody who had engaged a place as a waiter in a hotel at Jerusalem and had secured passage on a Khedivieh liner sailing for Jaffa to-day.

GERMANY'S EMPEROR.

The Imperial Yacht Forced to Put in at Zante by Bad Weather.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ZANTE, IONIAN ISLANDS, October 15.—The imperial yacht Hohenzollern, having on board the Emperor and Empress of Germany and their suites has put into the harbor of Zante, owing to the fact that a strong sirocco is blowing. The yacht will remain here until the gale has abated. All the members of the imperial party are enjoying good health.

WARM WIRELETS.

A cablegram received at the War Department from General Otis reports five deaths among the American soldiers at Manila since October 10.

Miss Beatrix Hoyt, of the Shinnecock Golf Club, N. Y., won the woman's golf championship and the Cox trophy, for the third successive time.

At Lexington, Ky., Major H. C. McDowell's filly Ecstacy broke the world's record for two-year old pacers, in pacing the Futurity, going the second heat in 2:01¼.

Government aid in the shape of army rations will be given to the sufferers from the recent floods in Georgia who are in need of the barest necessities of life.

Major General Fitzhugh Lee telegraphed Major General Greene yesterday that the condition of Mrs. Lee was so critical that he could not talk business. He asked General Greene to take command of the First division, Seventh Army Corps, and General Greene left for that duty last night.

The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserve, increase, $917,950; loans, increase, $10,023,300; specie, increase, $5,094,500; legal tenders, decrease, $22,400; deposits, increase, $16,337,400; circulation, increase, $23,400. The banks now hold $19,661,570 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

CHAIRMAN SIMMONS

Calls Upon the Democrats of the State for Voluntary Contributions.

OTHER NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Rep.-Pop. Combination Trying to Fool the Negroes—The State Fair—The Confusion Judicial Ticket—Praise for the Sixth District.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 15.

The fusion precinct chairmen in Raleigh township have appointed a committee of six (three Radicals and three Populists) to name the candidates for magistrates. This committee is headed by the negro janitor in the Governor's office. This plan was adopted to prevent the nomination of negro magistrates. In striking contrast to such a policy, the Democratic chairman has called a mass meeting of all the Democrats in the township for next Friday evening to name their magistrates.

The preparations for a great State Fair are moving steadily on. The attendance will be the largest in years.

The following was to-day given out at Democratic headquarters.

"The Chairman of the State Executive Committee finds it necessary to call upon the Democrats of the State for money, to defray the proper and necessary expenses of the campaign. The Democratic party has no means of raising funds for campaign purposes, except through the voluntary contributions of the people, and Chairman Simmons therefore, calls upon the Democrats of the State to send at once, directly to him, small contibutions, ranging from one dollar to five dollars, in order that he may secure a reasonable fund with which to meet the liabilities which he has already incurred, and to defray the further expenses of the campaign.

"It is hoped that the people will appreciate the necessity of liberally responding to this urgent call of the Chairman, and that he may not be hampered by a lack of the amount of money necessary to pay the legitimate and unavoidable expenses incident to the campaign."

This is a manly, straight forward call and should meet with a hearty response from the patriotic people of the State.

Thomas W. Lacy, the general delivery clerk in the postoffice at Richmond, will be brought here Monday to serve two years in the penitentiary for robbing the mails of Rev. Father Donovan.

The Great Easton Railroad Company, which will form a junction with the Southern at Goldsboro or Selma, was incorporated yesterday. The road will enter the counties of Hyde, Greene, Beaufort, Pitt, Wayne and Johnston.

All is speculation still in regard to the fusion judicial ticket in this State. Chairman Holton says that it will not be given out until on the eve of the election. The Republican managers are not without boodle now.

Raleigh will be handsomely decorated and illuminated during Fair week.

Jim Young's regiment was paid off yesterday and furnished with a number of new uniforms.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State for the Immediate Burial Relief Society at Newbern. The organization is for white people.

Theo. White says that he has had $1,000 worth of work done on the State's steamer Lily, and she is now in fine condition. Such an expenditure will make the Governor and Treasurer Worth furious, unless they have changed their opinion about the vessel.

The new auditorium building at the Blind Institution will be ready for occupancy by November 12th.

Edmunds, who is a candidate for the State Senate from Franklin county, was here yesterday and he told several parties that he expected to have some money soon. This substantiates the statement that Governor Russell is trying to have him taken down and Cade put up in his place.

Democratic leaders are all enthusiastic in their praise of the "unterrified" of the Sixth district, and every one who visits that section says that it is the best organized district in the State.

Maj. Frank Gordon, late of the Third U. S. V. immunes, son of Gen. Gordon, of Georgia, has been placed in a hospital in Washington, D. C., by his wife, suffering from fever which he contracted during service with the army in Cuba. He is quite ill, but no doubt is entertained of his ultimate recovery.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

OLD JAMESTOWN CHURCH

Visited by Members of the Episcopal General Convention—The Services. Historical Address.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., October 15.—The members of the Episcopal General Convention who made the pilgrimage to Jamestown, Va, left here at 8 30 o'clock this morning on the steamer Pocahontas and arrived at Jamestown at 1 P. M. There they were met by a large party from Norfolk, including a splendid choir. A platform had been erected in front of the ruins of the old Jamestown church, and on this the bishops were seated. In the rear of the platform was stationed the choir, which during the services of the day rendered several hymns with the organ and orchestral accompaniment. The clergy and others took seats on the ground in front of the platform. Bishop Randolph, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, made the welcoming address and Rev. Dr. McKim, of Washington, D. C., the orator of the day, delivered an historical address. Bishops Lawrence of Massachusetts and Nichols of California also made addresses. The prayers were read by Bishop Sarterlee of Washington, and the benediction was pronounced by Bishop Hare of South Dakota. The services were exceedingly impressive. A granite cross had been erected in the old churchyard to commemorate the pilgrimage. The members of the convention returned to the city to-night and left for Washington.
